Benefits of Raw Data Library Preprint Journal and Platform

- Crossref DOI will be assigned for submitted each Conference Paper
- All Preprint papers will be indexed in Google scholar and RDL web of science
- Early comments and discussion opportunities for submitted preprint papers on RDL platform
- Sharing your Preprints direct LinkedIn and Twitter
- Free certificate will be provided for all authors: Official Preprint certificate prior to sending your article to any journal
- No formatting or guidelines are required for Preprint Papers

How to Submit Your Preprint Articles and Assign a DOI Before Conference Presentation

Once you submit your conference papers authors can simultaneously submit their conference papers to Raw Data Library.

1. Visit www.rawdatlibrary.net and Register for Free

2. Add New Publication

3. Select Manuel Add Publication

The screenshot shows the RDL 'ADD NEW PUBLICATION' page. At the top left is the RDL logo and a '+ ADD NEW PUBLICATION' button. At the top right are icons for shopping cart, list, mail, and a notification bell with '10' next to it, and the RDL logo. Below these is a progress bar with five steps: 1. Publication Type, 2. Publication Info, 3. Add Researcher, 4. Upload PDF, and 5. Upload Raw Data. The first step, 'Publication Type', is active. Below the progress bar is a white box with the heading 'Turn Your Research Data Into Income'. Inside this box, there are two buttons: 'Manual Add Publication' (highlighted with a blue border) and 'Auto Add Publication'. A 'CONTINUE' button is located at the bottom right of the white box. At the bottom of the page, there is a footer with the RDL logo and tagline 'Where Science Meets Raw Data', links for 'Terms', 'Privacy', and 'Contact', 'Information' with email 'info@rawdatalibrary.net' and social media icons for Facebook, X, YouTube, and Instagram, and the Crossref DOI logo.

4. Select PREPRINT
